Applicant's arguments filed June 18, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

All previous rejections are withdrawn in light of applicants' remarks.

The following new grounds of rejection is set forth herein.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tozune et al. (4,987,156).

Tozune et al. discloses preparations of low-resiliency polyurethane foams prepared from a reaction mixture of urethane-forming chemicals, water, and additives inclusive of chlorinated paraffin (see the entire document). Applicants' claim 11 does not reflect the inventive concept and/or the resulting properties discussed at paragraph [0014] of the supporting disclosure. The use of the term "plasticizer" rather than patentees' term "flame retardant" does not distinguish this claim in a patentable sense as the compounds behavior is inherent to its make-up.
